Target Areas: Downtown Redwood City (Broadway, Main St), Middlefield Road Corridor, Woodside Plaza, Industrial areas near Seaport Blvd, El Camino Real businesses, Farm Hill Blvd corridor

1. Coffee Shops / Cafes

Downtown Coffee Shops (Broadway Area)

Target: Independent cafes near courthouse/Caltrain

Pain Points

- Daily food/beverage deliveries from multiple vendors
- Invoice pile-up during busy morning rushes
- Office workers expect quick service, no time for paperwork

Approach

Morning visit (8-9am), buy coffee, chat with owner during slower period (9:30-10am)

"How many vendor invoices do you get each week from coffee roasters, bakeries, dairy suppliers?"

Sequoia Station Area Cafes

Target: Commuter-focused spots near Caltrain

Approach

Mid-morning visit, ask about peak hours vs paperwork time

"When do you find time to enter all the supplier invoices into QuickBooks?"

2. Auto Repair Shops

Middlefield Road Auto Shops

Target: Independent mechanics, smog shops, brake shops

Pain Points

- Parts invoices from NAPA, O'Reilly, AutoZone, dealers
- High volume of small parts purchases
- Oil, filters, brake pads - constant reordering

Approach

Drop in during slow afternoon (2-4pm), look for owner working on cars

"Do you have someone typing all these parts invoices into QuickBooks, or does it pile up?"

European/Import Specialists

Target: BMW, Mercedes, Audi specialists (Redwood City has several)

Pain Points

- Expensive parts from specialized distributors
- Import/export documentation + invoices
- Higher invoice values = more critical to track

"With these high-value parts invoices, ever worry about losing one before it gets entered?"

3. Restaurants / Bars

Broadway Restaurants (Downtown)

Target: Downtown dining spots, courthouse lunch crowd

Pain Points

- Daily produce, meat, seafood deliveries
- Alcohol distributors (multiple vendors)
- Kitchen equipment repairs and maintenance

Approach

Visit before lunch rush (10:30am), ask for manager/owner

"What happens if invoices don't get entered for a week during your busy periods?"

El Camino Real Casual Dining

Target: Quick-service, family restaurants along El Camino

"Who handles the bookkeeping when you're managing the floor during dinner rush?"

4. Property Management

Redwood City Property Management Firms

Target: Companies managing Peninsula apartment buildings, HOA management

Pain Points

- Maintenance invoices from contractors across multiple properties
- Landscaping, plumbing, electrical repairs
- HOA assessment tracking and vendor payments

Approach

LinkedIn search for "property manager Redwood City", cold email with specific value prop

"How do you track all the maintenance invoices across your properties? Ever lose one?"

HOA Management Companies

Target: Management for condo complexes, townhome communities

Pain Points

- Monthly landscaping invoices
- Pool maintenance, common area repairs
- Multiple vendors per property

"With multiple HOAs to manage, how do you keep vendor invoices organized?"

5. Home Services (HVAC/Plumbing/Electrical)

Peninsula HVAC & Plumbing

Target: Companies serving Redwood City, Atherton, Menlo Park homes

Pain Points

- Parts invoices from Ferguson, specialized suppliers
- Equipment purchases (furnaces, water heaters)
- Van/truck maintenance expenses

Approach

Yelp search "HVAC Redwood City", call to speak with owner

"Is bookkeeping keeping you from more billable hours in the field?"

Electrical Contractors

Target: Residential/commercial electricians serving Peninsula

Pain Points

- Wire, panels, fixtures from electrical supply houses
- Permit fees, inspection costs
- Multiple job sites to track expenses

"With multiple job sites, how do you keep all the material invoices organized?"

6. Retail Boutiques

Downtown Redwood City Retail

Target: Broadway, Main St boutiques, specialty shops

Pain Points

- Inventory purchase invoices
- Seasonal ordering spikes
- Store fixture and display expenses

Approach

Shop as customer, strike up conversation with owner during slow period

"How do you handle all the vendor paperwork when you're managing the floor?"

Home Decor / Furniture

Target: Independent furniture stores, home goods on El Camino

"With furniture deliveries weekly, do invoices ever get buried?"

7. Medical / Dental / Wellness

Medical Offices (Woodside Plaza Area)

Target: Small practices 1-3 providers, dental offices, urgent care

Pain Points

- Medical equipment invoices (expensive, needs tracking)
- Supply orders (gloves, masks, disposables)
- Software subscriptions (EMR, scheduling)

Approach

Call office manager, ask for 5 minutes to discuss bookkeeping efficiency

"Would less paperwork time mean more patient appointment slots?"

Dental Practices

Target: Family dentists, orthodontists on Farm Hill, Alameda

Pain Points

- Dental supply houses (Henry Schein, Patterson)
- Equipment maintenance contracts
- High volume of small supply orders

"Between patient appointments, when do you find time for invoice entry?"

8. Landscaping / Lawn Services

Peninsula Landscaping Companies

Target: Companies with crews serving Redwood City, Atherton, Menlo Park

Pain Points

- Fuel invoices (trucks, mowers, blowers)
- Equipment repairs (weekly maintenance)
- Plant nursery purchases, mulch, soil

Approach

Look for landscaping trucks at gas stations, Home Depot, or driving around

"Are you losing fuel and parts invoices before they get to your bookkeeper?"

9. Construction / Remodeling

General Contractors (Peninsula)

Target: Kitchen/bath remodelers, ADU builders, home addition specialists

Pain Points

- Material invoices from multiple suppliers (lumber, tile, fixtures)
- Subcontractor bills (electricians, plumbers, painters)
- Change orders and permit fees

Approach

Home Depot parking lot (Seaport Blvd), job sites in residential areas

"What if invoices from your suppliers auto-posted to QB by job?"

Specialty Contractors

Target: Tile installers, painters, flooring companies

"With 5-10 active jobs, how do you keep material invoices organized per project?"

10. Professional Services

CPA / Accounting Firms

Target: Small CPA practices in Redwood City (they understand the problem)

Pain Points

- Software subscriptions (QuickBooks, tax prep, CRM)
- Professional development, licensing
- Office rent, utilities

Approach

Chamber of Commerce events, professional networking groups

"As a CPA, if you could automate client invoice entry, what would that be worth?"

Law Offices

Target: Small law firms (family law, real estate, business)

"Is manual invoice entry worth your billable rate?"

Marketing / Creative Agencies

Target: Small agencies near downtown, web design shops

"Would you rather bill clients or type in SaaS subscription invoices?"

Cold Approach Script — Redwood City Specific

Opening

> "Hi, I'm [Name]. I live in the area and I'm building a tool that reads invoice emails and posts them straight to QuickBooks — no typing. I'm testing it with Redwood City businesses. Mind if I ask how you handle invoices now?"

Discovery Questions

- "How many invoices do you get per week from [vendors/suppliers]?"
- "Who enters them into QuickBooks — you or someone else?"
- "How long does that usually take?"

- "Ever lose an invoice before it got entered?"
- "What's your biggest headache with bookkeeping?"
- "How do you handle invoices that come in by email vs. mail?"

The Ask

> "Would you be open to trying it for free for a week? I just need you to forward 5-10 invoice emails to a test address and tell me what breaks. I'm local, so I can come by if you have any questions."

Redwood City Specific Hooks

- "I know rents are high here — saving time on bookkeeping might help you focus on revenue."
- "Between serving downtown foot traffic and managing paperwork, where does the time go?"
- "I noticed a lot of Peninsula businesses struggle with the same thing — invoices piling up."
